Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 15 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Saturday cloudy with rain, most persistent in west.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry and clear start and feeling quite cold but cloud increasing form the south later in the night with some light and patchy rain by dawn. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Saturday:
A cloudy day with occasional rain, this most frequent and potentially heavy at times across western districts through the afternoon. South to southeast winds strengthening later. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Drier and brighter on Sunday but still quite windy. Then an unsettled spell of weather to start the new week with milder conditions, windy with periods of rain.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.